

Name: _____

Provided By: TheTeachersCorner.net Crossword Maker

Unit I Crossword Puzzle Review

Please complete the crossword puzzle below using the terms from Unit I.

Across:

1. Help to structure and organize the elements of design. They include balance, pattern, rhythm, movement, emphasis, contrast, and unity.
5. The things that are represented in an artwork, such as buildings, trees, people, etc.
7. A principle of design that refers to the

Down:

2. The experience of seeing and enjoying something for its own sake, or for its beauty and pleasurable qualities.
3. A principle of design referring to the arrangement of visual elements to create stability in an artwork.
4. An element of art that is a continuous mark made

- arrangement of parts in an artwork to create a sense of motion to the viewer's eye.
8. A principle of design that refers to differences in elements.
  10. A principle of design in which one element creates more attention than anything else in the composition.
  15. The building blocks of art. They include line, shape, form, color, value, texture, and space.
  16. An element of art concerned with the lightness and darkness of greys and colors.
  18. A category of art in which the subject matter of the art looks true to life.
  20. An element of design that is created by the response of vision to wavelengths of reflected light.
  22. A category of art in which there is a recognizable subject matter, but it has been distorted in some manner.
  24. A principle of design concerned with the inclusion of differences in the elements of a composition in order to offset too much unity.
  26. A type of balance where one side of an artwork mirrors the other.
  27. The element that is repeated in a pattern.
  29. A type of shape that is mechanical, human-made, such as triangle, circle, square.
  6. An element of art that indicates areas between, around, below, above, or within something.
  9. Artwork that has no recognizable subject matter. It is based only on the elements and principles of design.
  11. A principle of design concerned with the sense of wholeness that results from the successful combination of elements in an artwork.
  12. The systematic discussion of an artwork involving four stages.
  13. An element of design that deals with the surface quality of an artwork, how it feels (either actual or implied).
  14. An element of art; an enclosed space defined by width and height.
  17. An element of design that appears 3-D and encloses volume, such as cube, sphere, etc.
  19. A type of shape that is free-form, inspired by nature.
  21. A type of balance in which the elements on either side of an artwork are different, but placed so that they still balance in the work.
  23. A principle of design that involves the repetition of elements in a recognizable organization.
  25. A principle of design that refers to the visual tempo of an artwork, which is achieved through pattern and movement.
  28. The materials that art is made from (for example: Paint, Colored Pencil)